NEWS RELEASE

Sabre Airlines Solutions Appoints Axel Bensch to Lead Sales and Accounts in the Pacific Region.

Melbourne, AUSTRALIA – 21 July 2005 - Sabre Airlines Solutions today announced the appointment of Axel Bensch to Account Director for the Pacific region.

In this role, Bensch is responsible for working with new and existing customers across the region to help them better understand the significant opportunities presented by Sabre Airline Solution's innovative technology. Working closely with Sabre Travel Network and Travelocity, Bensch is charged with expanding Sabre Airline Solution's presence in the region through the provision of consulting, technology solutions and services for the airline and travel industries.

"Axel is a valuable asset to our team and brings to the role an impressive background in the global travel industry spanning over 15 years," said Greg Gilchrist, Senior Vice President, Sales and Account Management, Sabre Airline Solutions. "We welcome his deep industry knowledge and proven experience in growing businesses and sourcing new market opportunities."

Based in Melbourne, Bensch joins Sabre Airlines Solutions from Lochard Limited where he was responsible for providing performance solutions to airport clients in the Asia Pacific region. Prior to this, Bensch held senior roles at Lufthansa Systems, Rosenbluth International, Amadeus and Galileo International, delivering services and solutions to the aviation and travel sectors.

Bensch takes over from Matt Mclelland, who has moved to Sabre Travel Network in New Zealand to assume the role as Country Manager, New Zealand.
